Message from Mr Brown

A big welcome back to the new half term. I hope your children have settled back into routine and are excited ahead of this half term with the upcoming festivities. On Monday, we will have a whole school 2 minute silence in memory of the people who died during the two world wars and other conflicts. My assembly on Monday will also be around the importance of armistice day.

As well as this, it is anti-bullying week. To promote this, children are encouraged to wear odd socks to school on Monday as part of celebrating difference. The personal developments themes for this half term are around celebrating difference and this has a strong emphasis on anti-bullying.

I hope to see many of you at the fireworks this evening. Have a lovely weekend.

Mr. Brown

Fireworks night

Ahead of our fireworks night this evening, we want to say a huge thank you to our PTA and Lou Chapman for all of their hard work and dedication to bring this event to fruition.
